

K-Love is the most awesome Christian station I have ever heard. It encourages and enlightens me every single day. The Austin community would suffer a great loss if this station were replaced by an LPFM. It is in the best interest in the Austin area to keep this uplifting and encouraging station for all concerned.